

The background of the image is a faded, light gray version of the Port Huron Police badge. The badge is shield-shaped with a curved top. At the very top is a crest featuring a wreath and wings. Below this, the word "POLICE" is written in a large, bold, serif font across a dark banner. Underneath "POLICE" is a circular emblem containing the year "1881". The central part of the badge features a detailed scene with a lighthouse, a ship, and trees, flanked by two deer. At the bottom, a wide banner contains the text "STATE OF MICHIGAN" and "PORT HURON" in a serif font.
